117 S Main St. - Seattle, WA

Map the Square is a week-long art installation project created over time by you! Your input is needed to transform Pioneer Square into an even more unified, lively, and attractive place to be. Through the simple act of tying approved tags around the neighborhood, you can tell us two things:

- 1) What physical elements would you like to see in the neighborhood?
- 2) Where would you like to see them located?

From September 6th to 13th, eight kiosks will be hosted around Pioneer Square where you can learn more, grab your desired tags, and get tying. By taking part in this exercise along with the Alliance for Pioneer Square and the Young Architects Forum, you help shape the future of your community for the better. So get out, share your thoughts, and have fun!
