

---

Code Transition: Changes to the 2015 Seattle Building Code

Friday, October 7, 2016 | Bertha Knight Landes Room at City Hall | 600 4th Avenue | Seattle | 98104

\ all sessions/speakers subject to change*

Don Weissinger | Senior Building Plans Examiner | Department of Construction and Inspections, City of Seattle

Don is a licensed architect with 34 years of practice in the private sector, including a partnership in a Seattle architectural firm, where added duties were technical and HR management, QA/QC, and building code advisor. Don's experience also includes building envelope remediation and architectural forensics. He has been a Building Plans Examiner with the City of Seattle Department of Construction and Inspections for 3 years now.

Bob Kennedy | Senior Building Plans Examiner | Department of Construction and Inspections, City of Seattle

Bob Kennedy has over 35 years of experience that includes professional practice with The Baylis Architects, Decker Fukui Architecture, Callison, and University of Washington, and as a Building Plans Examiner with Seattle Department of Construction and Inspections (SDCI). His professional work includes single family, multi-family, commercial office and hospitals. At SDCI Bob reviews all project types for building code compliance and serves as one of the departments subject matter experts for accessibility.

Amy Barnett | Senior Building Plans Examiner | Department of Construction and Inspections, City of Seattle

Amy Barnett is an architect with over 20 years' experience, primarily in residential design. She has volunteered for several community based organizations, including serving as a representative on the Queen Anne Design Review Board for 5 years. For the past 3 years, Amy has been a Building Plans Examiner at the City of Seattle, reviewing a wide range of projects. An ICC Certified Building Plans Examiner and registered architect, she holds degrees in Architecture and Historic Preservation from Columbia University.

Casandra Wallace | Senior Building Plans Examiner | Department of Construction and Inspections, City of Seattle

Casandra Wallace is ICC certified as a Building Plans Examiner and an Accessibility Plans Examiner. Her background includes 15 years of plan review experience in several parts of the country, 9 of which have been with the City of Seattle. Casandra received her Civil Engineering Bachelor of Science degree from San Diego State University; for three years she did structural design in engineering offices.