AWARDS + JURY PROCESS

The AIA Seattle Honor Awards program recognizes four levels of achievement:

HONOR AWARD

Represents the highest level of achievement

MERIT AWARD

Represents exceptional achievement

HONORABLE MENTION

Represents distinguished achievement

ENERGY IN DESIGN AWARD

Represents a balance of design achievement and exemplary energy performance

TELL THE JURY A STORY

Every year, jurors praise submissions that tell the story behind the marketing images. What concepts drove your design? Through your project narrative, captions, and inclusion of process work in your submission, we encourage you to tell the jury the whole design story.

In addition to the jury's own criteria, the AIA Seattle community has identified four considerations for the submission review process: Inspiration, Problem-solving, Environmental Sensitivity, and Social Impact.

Refer to past galleries for examples of award-winning submissions. Awards are the final determination of the jury.

Go to aiaseattle.org/honorawards2018 for more info on the jury process.

PHOTO RELEASE

By participating, all entrants grant AIA Seattle a non-exclusive license to post the entries in an online gallery so that the public and press may view all competing entries. In addition, each winner grants to AIA Seattle a license for use of all entries in connection with AIA Seattle Honor Awards, in any media now or hereafter known, including but not limited to: publication in newspapers and magazines and AIA Seattle sponsored exhibitions of the work (including the online gallery). AIA Seattle will not be required to pay any additional consideration or seek any additional approval in connection with such use. Submission to this program implies permission from the project owner, and releases AIA Seattle from any responsibility of seeking permissions from owners, photographers, or any project-related stakeholders. Inclusion of photos implies permission from the photographer. Correct attribution is the sole responsibility of the submitter.
