Allied Professional

Membership for Individuals and Small Businesses

WHY JOIN AIA SEATTLE?

AIA is not just for architects. Allied membership is designed for the individual or small business with 8 or fewer full-time employees who collaborate directly with the A/E/C industry.

*If you are a business with more than 8 full-time employees, please see our Corporate Allied Partner sponsorship program.

Relationship-Building

AIA Seattle opens the door to relationships with over 2500+ architects and design professionals in the Puget Sound area. Build your network by participating in committees and events, promote your services, or provide your unique expertise to those who need you most.

Benefits

Each year, AIA Seattle produces a diverse calendar of educational programs and social events which offer unique opportunities for networking and promotion. As the needs of the industry change, so will our engagement opportunities - from online learning to new programs on COVID-19, our changing economy, racial justice, and sustainable design. Enjoy member discounts on events, classes, job listings and documents, as well as access to members-only programs.

Individual Allied and Small Business Allied Benefits:

AIA Seattle's allied membership program will help you connect with your audience to facilitate relationship-building, expanded networks and new collaborations.

Allied membership benefits are designed for the individual seeking similar benefits afforded to our architect members, or a small business looking to increase marketing visibility and connect with our architect members. If you are a business with more than 8 full-time employees and would like to receive expanded benefits, please see our Corporate Allied Partner sponsorship program.
