Culture Change in Practice: A Leadership Cohort is a four-part, peer-based learning program designed to provide architecture and allied firms the tools and community to meet the explicit goals and metrics laid out in NOMA NW's Call-to-Action. The full series cost is calculated by firm size, ranging between $500-$1500 USD. In recognition that this fee may present a hardship to some firms who are nevertheless committed to investing in the work, AIA Seattle has reserved limited funds for reduced rate requests.
