WHY JOIN AIA SEATTLE?

It's not just for architects! Allied membership is designed for the individual, or small business with 8 or fewer full-time employees who collaborate directly with the A/E/C industry.*

*If you are a business with more than 8 full-time employees, please see our Corporate Allied Partner sponsorship program.

RELATIONSHIP-BUILDING

AIA Seattle opens the door to relationships with over 2,700 architects and 9,000 industry-adjacent design professionals in the Puget Sound area. Build your network by participating in committees, programs, and events, promote your services, and provide your unique expertise to those who need you most.

BENEFITS

Each year, AIA Seattle produces a diverse calendar of educational programs and social events which offer unique opportunities for networking and promotion. As the needs of the industry change, so will our engagement opportunities - from online learning, promotion of advocacy efforts, adapting our imperatives to meet the needs of the industry, and instilling a love for design in all. Access members-only programs, and enjoy significant discounts on events, classes, job listings, advertising, and contract documents.

POSITIONING

AIA Seattle is an important public voice for great design. Membership gives you an influential and respected platform to engage in civic dialogue about urban design, sustainability, and the regulatory environment that shapes our city.
INDIVIDUAL ALLIED AND SMALL BUSINESS ALLIED BENEFITS:

AIA Seattle’s allied membership program will help you connect with your audience to facilitate relationship-building, expanded networks, and new collaborations.

Allied membership benefits are designed for the individual seeking similar benefits afforded to our architect members, or a small business looking to increase marketing visibility and connect with our architect members. If you are a business with more than 8 full-time employees and would like to receive expanded benefits, please see our Corporate Allied Partner sponsorship program.
