

Compensation Report Confidentiality Agreement

By signing this form and returning it to the AIA Seattle office I agree to only use the compensation report materials personally and will not share them with any other party.

The compensation report is created by AIA National and AIA Seattle purchases a copy for local members to use. Because of COVID-19 the Center for Architecture and Design is closed to the public until further notice. During this time, AIA Seattle will email a copy of this valued resource to our members once they have signed and returned this form, agreeing to the terms and conditions listed above.
