

Seattle International Architecture Forum & Diversity Roundtable

Social Hour

Tuesday, March 6th 5:30 - 7:30pm
Center for Architecture & Design
1010 Western Avenue

Seattle International Architecture Forum and Diversity Roundtable are teaming up for a series of Happy Hour events throughout 2018. Our March event will feature a lively conversation with Dr. Sharon E. Sutton, FAIA, as she discusses her book, “When Ivory Towers Were Black: A Story about Race in America’s Cities and Universities”. Wine and snacks will be provided.

Hosted by:

For more time with Dr. Sutton, check out her full lecture on March 7th as part of the UW Center of Built Environment’s lecture series. More information here: <http://www.be.washington.edu/>